

Obesity and cardiovascular disease

Wednesday 23 May 2018, 16.30–18.00

Hall D, Austria Center

Vienna, Austria

Chair: John Deanfield (UK)

You are invited to the Novo Nordisk symposium, Obesity and cardiovascular disease, held during 25th European Congress on Obesity (ECO 2018) in Vienna, Austria.

During this symposium we will consider the association between obesity and mortality in people with newly diagnosed cardiovascular disease, how weight loss impacts cardiovascular risk, and how to optimise the use of antiobesity medications in people with obesity.

Novo Nordisk has assembled an esteemed Faculty of experts in the field of cardiology and obesity who look forward to welcoming you in Vienna.
